

Americans in Alsace

Membership Application and Renewal

2010-2011

Americans in Alsace (AIA) is a not-for-profit association headquartered in Strasbourg, France. AIA functions as a support system for North Americans living in Alsace, helping individuals and families identify with and integrate into their new environment. AIA promotes interest in and awareness of the lifestyle and culture of France, stimulates new friendships through shared social activities, promotes a positive image of North Americans to its French counterparts and celebrates North American customs and holidays in a safe cultural harbor. A monthly newsletter keeps members informed about AIA activities.

Membership Qualifications:

- One member of the family (including children) must hold citizenship in a North American country, or
- One adult in the family must have held a green card.

Annual dues:

- Family membership – €35
- Student membership (applies to single persons under age 25) – €12

To join, simply complete the following information, and include a copy of the identification page of one North American passport for one family member or a copy of a green card. (A copy of the passport/green card is not necessary for membership renewals). Mail the document(s) with your check, payable to Americans in Alsace, to B.P. 60169, 67004 Strasbourg Cedex.
